Occupying a truly spectacular location just footsteps from the beach, Craig-Y-Mor is an individual, well presented, ground floor apartment enjoying breathtaking views over Trevone Bay and to the Round Hole.

A unique property full of character, the accommodation includes a beautiful sun room overlooking the bay, a cosy sitting and dining room which leads through to a contemporary bespoke kitchen. There are four bedrooms in total, the spacious master suite includes an en-suite cloakroom, and there is a large family bathroom. Tucked at the rear of the kitchen there is a low maintenance courtyard garden.

The stunning sandy beach is just a few meters away, from the sun room you can relax on the lounge seating and watch the surf rolling in. A few extra steps around the corner there is also a beautiful rocky beach with a unique tidal pool, a brilliant spot to explore. With access to the South West Coast Path in seconds.

Designed with beachside living in mind, there is wood flooring throughout and a gated side entrance including an outdoor shower and board racks which provides access into the family bathroom with underfloor heating.

A rare opportunity to purchase a property in such a fabulous location, ideal as a main residence or a holiday home and offered fully furnished.
